This is an example file heading.

Let's get started. This is just basic text I am writing here. We will se if the output will be nice or not. It stays interesting. Yee haa. Let's check if this is a line break
This should be on a new line.

This is a nice subheading don't you think?

Oh look. I got soemthing for you in italic. Nice heh? That is a bold statement don't you think? This this is ~~strike through~~.
